INTRODUCED BY BROWNE, DINNIMAN, STACK, WARD, BAKER, FONTANA, ALLOWAY, PILEGGI, BOSCOLA, SCHWANK, KASUNIC, PIPPY, MENSCH,
YUDICHAK, FERLO, EARLL, FARNESE, WASHINGTON AND ERICKSON,
OCTOBER 17, 2011

INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED, OCTOBER 17, 2011

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the month of October 2011 as "Pennsylvania's Promise
2 for Children Month" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, According to the Office of Child Development and 4 Early Learning Risk Report 2009-2010, there are approximately 5 737,000 children from birth to age five in Pennsylvania today;
6 and

7 WHEREAS, A young child's brain forms 700 neural synapses a 8 second; and the circuits for key functions such as 9 vision/hearing, language and higher cognitive function develop 10 most in the first five years of life. The creation of these 11 circuits is affected by a child's early learning environment;
12 and

13 WHEREAS, Quality early learning and child development play a 14 major role in a child's future success in school and in life;
15 and

16 WHEREAS, Young children learn best when they have proper 17 health and nutrition, a safe and stable family and home life and

1 activities that stimulate creativity, curiosity and all of the 2 skills they will need to succeed in school and life; and

3 WHEREAS, The Abecedarian Project and Perry Preschool Project
4 tell us that forty years of research shows that children
5 receiving high-quality early education are more likely to be 6 prepared for and do better in school, graduate high school,
7 attend college or job training and be better prepared for a 8 competitive work force; and

9 WHEREAS, Talking, reading and playing with children from 10 birth builds the language, math and social skills they need to 11 be ready for kindergarten; and

12 WHEREAS, Choosing quality early learning programs like
13 Keystone STARS, Pre-K Counts, Head Start, Early Intervention, 14 Nurse-Family Partnership and Parent-Child Home Program will 15 partner with families and provide children with good teachers 16 and learning activities that spark creativity and a love for 17 learning so they can grow and develop; and

18 WHEREAS, Every $1 invested in quality early education saves
19 at least $7 in special education, public assistance, corrections
20 and lost taxes; therefore be it

21 RESOLVED, That the Senate designate the month of October 2011
22 as "Pennsylvania's Promise for Children Month," recognizing that 23 every child in Pennsylvania deserves access to quality early 24 learning opportunities and that it is the civic responsibility
25 of every Pennsylvanian to help our children reach their promise.
