Proclamation by Clinton County Commissioners

Childcare Provider Appreciation Day

May 7, 2010

WHEREAS, the Clinton County Early Care and Education Initiative and other organizations nationwide are recognizing Child Care Providers on this day; and

WHEREAS, of the 21 million children under age 6 in America, 13 million are in child care at least part time. An additional 24 million school-age children are in some form of child care outside of school time; and

WHEREAS, by calling attention to the importance of high quality child care services for all children and families within our state/community, our group hopes to improve the quality and availability of such services; and

WHEREAS, our future depends on the quality of the early childhood experiences provided to young children today; high quality early childcare services represent a worthy commitment to our children's future.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, County Commissioners of Clinton County, hereby proclaim May 7, 2010 as Provider Appreciation Day in Clinton County and urge all citizens to recognize Child Care Providers for their important work.

ADOPTED, this 6th day of May of 2010.
